ANNOUNCEMENT has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Bahner of Baltimore of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Patricia Bahner, to John Hill Scudder. Miss Bahner teaches school at Mount Morris, Mich., a suburb of Flint, Mich., where her fiancé, a former St. Louisan, lives. He is the son of Mrs. Prentiss Gale Scudder, 440 South Kirkwood road, Kirkwood, and the late Mr. Scudder.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Ohio State University, Columbus. Mr. Scudder, director of merchandising for Buick Motor Division of General Motors, formerly was associated with the Buick zone office here. A graduate of John Burroughs School, he attended Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., and the University of Missouri and became a member of Sigma Chi fraternity. In the last war he served in the Army. He is the brother of Mrs. Thomas G. Rankin (Mary Katherine Scudder) and Prentiss Gale Scudder and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Elisha G. Scudder and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman B. Hill, none of whom is living.

Feisley-Butler Wedding in June

THE engagement of Miss Diana Louise Butler and James Frederick Feisley, and plans for their forthcoming June wedding, were announced to a group of their friends last night at a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Wilder Butler, at their home, 5932 Cabanne place.

The news was disclosed by a photograph of the couples' hands, showing the placing of the ring on her finger, which was mounted in a heart-shaped Valentine banked with spring flowers.

The bride-elect attended Visitation Academy and is a graduate of Miss Scott's School of Music, Little Rock, Ark. She has one sister, Mrs. Robert Linton Carter II.

Mr. Feisley, who makes his home at 7443 Cromwell drive, Clayton, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Webb Feisley of Pittsburgh, Pa. He was graduated cum laude from Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., where he joined Phi Delta Theta, social, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa, honorary, fraternities. During World War II he served as a lieutenant in the Army Air Force.

Baggerman-Halliday Marriage in Spring

THE engagement of Miss Jean Halliday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Halliday of Quincy, Ill., former St. Louisans, to William Francis Baggerman was announced at a luncheon at the Missouri Athletic Club on Tuesday. The table was decorated for the occasion with a centerpiece of red and white carnations bearing the names of the engaged couple, whose wedding will take place late this spring.

Miss Halliday attended Colorado University at Boulder and Washington University. Mr. Baggerman, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Baggerman, 731 Radcliffe avenue, University City, attended both Washington University and the University of Edinburgh. His fraternity is Phi Kappa Alpha. During World War II he served with the Army Air Force in the Pacific Theater.

Miss Davis Is Fiancee Of Edward J. Meyer Jr.; Wedding Next June

MR. AND MRS. RALPH L. DAVIS of Kansas City, formerly of St. Louis, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Jo-Ann Davis, to Edward J. Meyer Jr., son of the Edward J. Meyers, 80 Bellerive Acres, Normandy.

The wedding will take place June 9 at Central Presbyterian Church, Kansas City, on the twenty-fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. Meyer's parents. The Rev. Dr. J. Layton Mauze Jr., will go to Kansas City to perform the ceremony.

Miss Davis attended William Jewell College, Liberty, Mo., for two years and became a member of Beta Sigma Omicron sorority. Mr. Meyer, a senior at William Jewell, belongs to Phi Gamma Delta fraternity. An Army veteran, he spent 10 months of his two years' total service in Japan. He and his fiancée are at his parents' home for the weekend.
