

Military Photo Notes

William F. Baggerman

	Colorado Springs, CO July 1944 Full 45 pound field equipment including steel helmet, gas mask, carbine, web belt, field bag, and blanket roll, etc.
	Colorado Springs, CO July 1944 Simulated air attack by a B-25 flying about 250 MPH at tree top height and dropping paper flour sack bombs
	Colorado Springs, CO July 1944 Mess area, serving tables hidden under camouflage net.

	Colorado Springs, CO July 1944 Cleaning mess gear in boiling water after chow. Stoves are new smokeless gasoline type.
	WFB in our tent on Guam
	Our tent on Guam
	1944 Jap gun emplacement just below our camp (XXI Bomber Camp) on Guam

1944

Jap gun emplacement just below our camp on Guam.

10 Feb 1944

Base S-1 Office, Army Air Base, Salt Lake City, Utah

Our movie screen on Guam. The seats were boxes that held the 500 pound fire bombs that burned Tokyo.

Mess hall at Guam

March 1943

"Bugs Bunny" the reclining rabbit insignia of the glider pilots at R.A.F.S., Roswell, NM.

March 1943

At fire look-out tower at Ruidoso, NM.

March 1943

On fire look-out tower at Ruidoso, NM.

1944

Taken with "Beverly the Reveille Girl" while training as a glider pilot in Twenty Nine Palms, CA. This was take in CBS Studios in Hollywood.